02 · WHO ACTUALLY DRIVES UP

Man 40+, driver, on a weekday — the ideal audience for nicotine

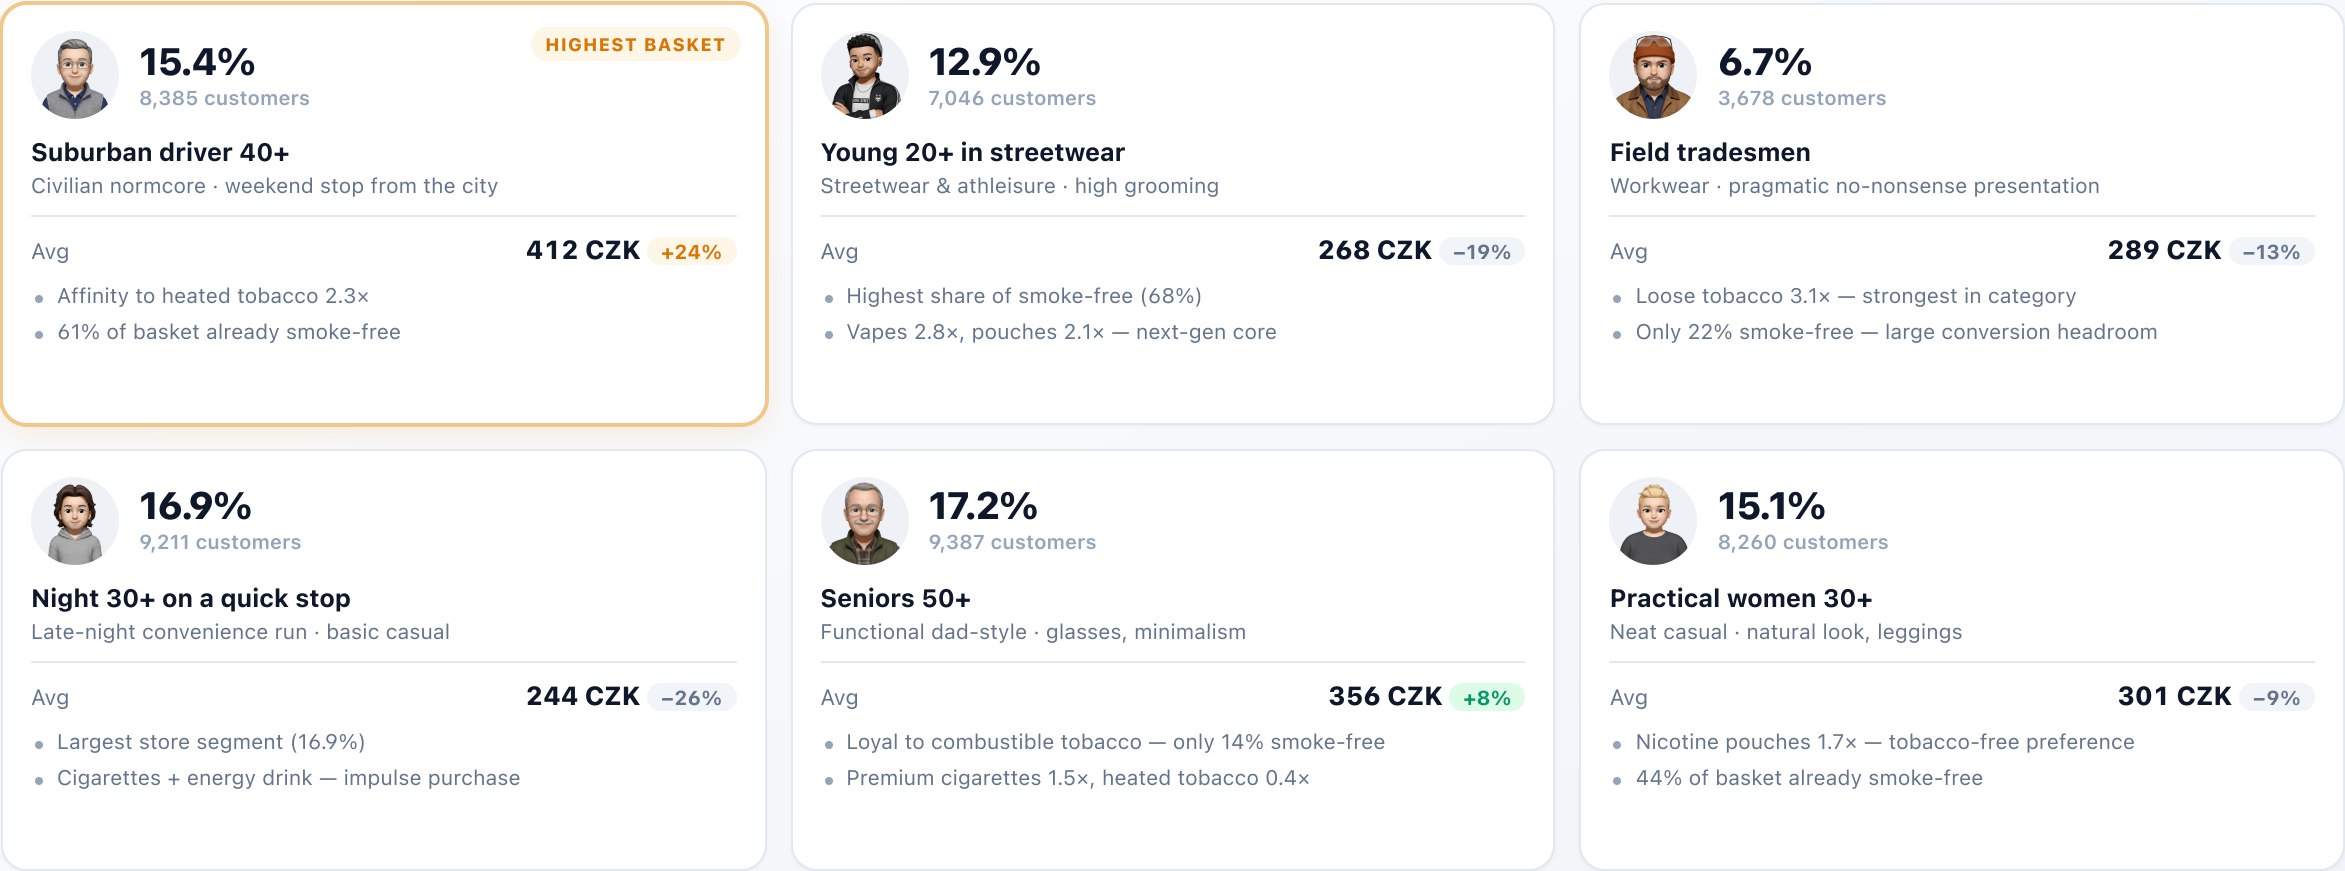

INSIGHT

Forecourt visitors are 75% male, half aged 40–59, driving alone on weekdays — a concentrated, recurring audience for the nicotine category.

03 · KEY CUSTOMER TYPES

Different customer – different preference

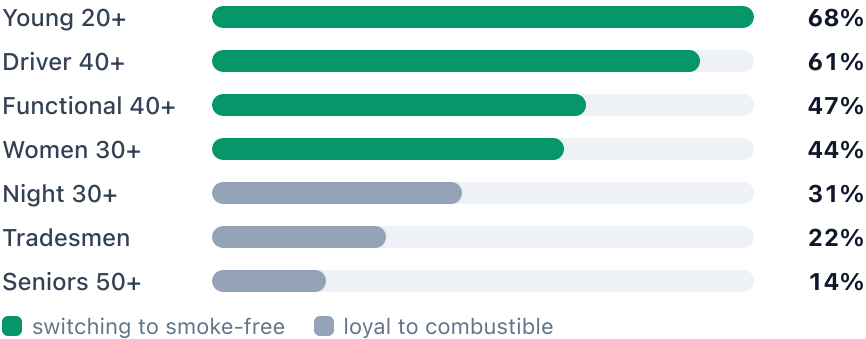

INSIGHT

Segments split into two groups: loyal to combustible tobacco (seniors, tradesmen, night) and switching to smoke-free (driver 40+, young 20+, women 30+). The highest basket belongs to Driver 40+.

REVENUE SPLIT BY CATEGORY

INSIGHT

The switch to smoke-free is mirror-inverted by age and trade: young people and drivers 40+ are already 60–68% smoke-free, while seniors and tradesmen stay with cigarettes and loose tobacco. One persona, one preference.

WHERE YOU LEAD

HeatCore holds 71% of heated tobacco and FrostPouch 44% of pouches — you lead the switch to smoke-free among drivers 40+ and young people.

INSIGHT

Your portfolio is strong precisely in the growing smoke-free categories (heated tobacco, pouches), while in classic cigarettes it holds a premium share via Crown and volume via Everyday.

DOPAD

The data shows exactly which personas hold which product — a basis for targeted campaigns and for negotiating space and listing with EuroOil.

THIS WAS JUST A TASTE

How much do you still not know about customers at the forecourt?

This report is a showcase built on mocked (illustrative) data. On a real pilot we'll prepare a deep-dive analysis tailored to your portfolio — custom segments, the switch to smoke-free over time and data across the EuroOil network.
